

Pediatric or Adult Radiologist with Neuroradiology Experience

The Department of Radiology, Division of Pediatric Radiology at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine and the Department of Medical Imaging at Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago ("Lurie Children's") seek a full-time, non-tenure-eligible Clinician-Educator at the rank of Instructor, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Professor. The responsibilities of a successful candidate will include providing excellent care in all aspects of pediatric neuroimaging. The candidate will also join the collaborative pediatric neuroradiology team and supervise and interpret MR and CT images, participate in multidisciplinary conferences in neurosciences, and contribute to the academic mission of the group.

Qualified candidates must be certified in Diagnostic Radiology by the American Board of Radiology with pediatric neuroradiology fellowship training. Preference will be given to applicants with education and/or experience in pediatric neuroradiology. Applicants must be eligible for an academic appointment at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine.

The Department of Medical Imaging at Lurie Children's is home to more than 30 radiologists who provide the complete spectrum of diagnostic and interventional pediatric imaging care.

Lurie Children's is a state-of-the-art 364-bed hospital completed in 2012 and located in the heart of downtown Chicago near miles of open lakefront full of scenic points and recreational opportunities. An abundance of cultural activities including museums, music, world-class restaurants and upscale shopping make this city a great place to live and work. Lurie Children's provides superior pediatric care in a setting that offers the latest benefits and innovations in medical technology, research and family-friendly design. As the largest pediatric provider in the region with a 140-year legacy of excellence, kids and their families are at the center of all we do. Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago is ranked in all 10 specialties by the U.S. News & World Report.

Interested applicants should submit a cover letter and CV to Cynthia Rigsby, MD, FACR, Chair, Department of Medical Imaging at crigsby@luriechildrens.org.
