Director of Pediatric Neuroradiology, Division of Pediatric Radiology

Discover Your Career at Emory University

Emory University is a leading research university that fosters excellence and attracts world-class talent to innovate today and prepare leaders for the future. We welcome candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of our academic community.

Description

The Emory University Department of Radiology and Imaging Sciences and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta (CHOA) are recruiting a full-time, board certified Director of Pediatric Neuroradiology (NR) to join our growing faculty at the Emory + Children's Pediatric Institute. A successful candidate will lead our large Pediatric Neuroradiology service and join the Pediatric Radiology Division. This leader will provide oversight and coordination of Pediatric NR services and provide leadership in trainee education and innovation in this arena.

Minimum Qualifications

Qualified applicants must have completed an ACGME-accredited fellowship in (1) Neuroradiology and/or (2) Pediatric Radiology. Applicants must have ABR Subspecialty Certification in Pediatric Radiology and/or NR. Faculty rank will commensurate with experience.

Preferred Qualifications

Preferably, candidates will have completed a Pediatric Neuroradiology Fellowship and a minimum of 5 years clinical experience in Pediatric Neuroradiology.

Highlights

Children’s is one of the largest pediatric clinical care providers in the country with three hospitals, 638 licensed beds and access to more than 60 pediatric sub-specialties.

To respond to the growing demands for access to our specialized pediatric care, Children’s has broken ground on the Arthur M. Blank Hospital, a new pediatric medical campus that is scheduled to open in 2025 and will be one of the largest pediatric tertiary care hospitals in the country.

- Our radiology team currently performs over 300,000 imaging exams annually, including over 9,000 NR MRIs and 6,000 NR CTs.

- Our program consists of over 6 Neurosurgeons and 23 Neurologists with over 22,000 office visits and 14,000 surgical procedures annually.

- Our Emergency Departments have over 130 physicians and over 300,000 patient visits annually.
Our Hematology/Oncology program consists of over 70 physicians with over 20,000 office visits annually.

- Children’s has continually been named one of the best, ranking as one of the nation’s “Best Children’s Hospitals” by U.S. News & World Report and one of the “100 Best Places to Work” by Fortune magazine.

- The Emory University Department of Radiology and Imaging Sciences is one of the preeminent academic radiology departments in the country.

- Through collaboration with neighboring academic and scientific institutions, our staff is developing cutting edge treatments and technologies to address the most perplexing childhood medical questions.

Additional Details

Position will report directly to the Director of Pediatric Radiology.

Employment will be through the Emory + Children’s Pediatric Institute, an affiliation between Emory University and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta. The Emory + Children’s Pediatric Institute is an affiliation between Emory University and Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta that is improving the lives of children in Georgia and beyond. The Pediatric Institute combines the unique strengths and resources of each institution in support of our three-part academic missions of providing outstanding clinical care, conducting innovative basic science discovery and clinical research, and coordinating exceptional education of the future healthcare workforce. Our physicians, researchers, and educators have created a model where leadership, commitment and quality are fundamental components of success. Together, we are transforming pediatrics by achieving new levels of clinical excellence— driven by research, teaching and wellness. We look forward to our future together.

Emory Supports a Diverse and Inclusive Culture

Emory University is dedicated to providing equal opportunities and equal access to all individuals regardless of race, color, religion, ethnic or national origin, gender, genetic information, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and veteran’s status. Emory University does not discriminate in admissions, educational programs, or employment on the basis of any factor stated above or prohibited under applicable law. Students, faculty, and staff are assured of participation in University programs and in the use of facilities without such discrimination. Emory University complies with Executive Order 11246, as amended, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Vietnam Era Veteran’s Readjustment Assistance Act, and applicable executive orders, federal and state regulations regarding nondiscrimination, equal opportunity and affirmative action. Emory University is committed to achieving a diverse workforce through application of its affirmative action, equal opportunity and nondiscrimination policy in all aspects of employment including recruitment, hiring, promotions, transfers, discipline, terminations, wage and salary administration, benefits, and training. Inquiries regarding this policy should be directed to the Emory University Department of Equity and Inclusion, 201 Dowman Drive, Administration Building, Atlanta, GA 30322. Telephone: 404-727-9867 (V) | 404-712-2049 (TDD).

Emory University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities upon request. To request this document in an alternate format or to request a reasonable accommodation, please contact the Department of Accessibility Services at 404-727-9877 (V) | 404-712-2049 (TDD). Please note that one week advance notice is preferred.

Apply Now

https://faculty-emory.icims.com/jobs/64676/job?mobile=false&width=1540&height=500&bga=true&needsRedirect=false&jan1offset=-420&jun1offset=-360